The Fourth Sunday in Lent

Joshua 5.2-12; Psalm 32; 2 Corinthians 5.16-21; Luke 5.11-32

There are probably few stories that Jesus tells in the New Testament that are as moving and significant to all of us as that of the Prodigal Son. No tale illustrates God's love and forgiveness in such tender ways. I often try to place myself in the place of the prodigal son on his journey home and to feel what he must have felt, a spiritual exercise that can bring me to some grief, then imagining the joy not only of the welcome home but the reconciliation that came with it. This Lenten season we remember that we are walking that same road home to the father where we are welcomed and forgiven through Christ.

Pray for reconciliation with those who we have wronged and who have wronged us; and pray that we might be as quick to show mercy and love as the father from the parable.

Give thanks for the Episcopal Church of South Sudan and Sudan, and pray for peace between and within both countries.

From the lectionary

Sentence: God has reconciled us to himself through Christ, and given us the ministry of reconciliation. 2 Corinthians 5: 18

Prayer: God of compassion, you are slow to anger, and full of mercy, Welcoming sinners who return to you with penitent hearts:
Receive in your loving embrace all who come home to you,
And seat them at your bountiful table, that, with all your children,
They may feast with delight on all that satisfies the hungry heart
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Saviour, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Readings: Joshua 5: 2-12; Psalm 32 (p252); 2 Corinthians 5: 16-21;
Luke 15: 11-342

Next week: IsaiH 43: 16-21; Psalm 126; Philippians 3: 3-14; John 12: 1-8

MARCH 6 - 2016

LENT 4

OUR MISSION STRATEGY By the power of Holy Spirit as we lean on Him in obedience to His word and unceasing prayer. By this means He shall build a community of worshippers and lovers of God from whom streams of living water will flow. A church that learns from the past and faces the future with faith and hope. By this means He shall build a community of worshippers and lovers of God from whom streams of living water will flow. A church that learns from the past and faces the future with faith and hope.

This Lent Take time to ponder about our lives and where we are going. Think about God in our lives. Who is God for us? What does he mean to us? What do we mean to him. Unknown
